

Updated 10/15: Addicts rent unsold homes' rooms (Northbrook Star)

More info...

The two new million-dollar houses on the 2000 block of Northbrook's Maple Avenue sport marble and granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, plasma TV sets, game rooms, libraries -- the works.

Addicts rent unsold homes' rooms (Northbrook Star)

The two new million-dollar houses on the 2000 block of Northbrook's Maple Avenue sport marble and granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, plasma TV sets, game rooms, libraries -- the works. And right now, those amenities are all for the pleasure of recovering alcoholics and drug addicts willing to rustle up $350 a week to stay in them.

By Kevin Posival Killeen Daily Herald (Killeen Daily Herald)

Killeen has had two weeks to prepare for this afternoon's game against the 5-3 Hutto Hippos. Hutto (1-3 25-4A), which opened the season with four straight wins before losing its first three district games, is coming off a morale-boosting 21-14 win over Marble Falls.

Buena Park home to $20 million Jain temple complex (Los Angeles Daily News)

In a suburban Southern California landscape dotted with evangelical megachurches and auto malls, followers of an Indian religion thousands of years old spent days decorating marble idols and lighting incense to herald the opening of one of their faith's largest temples.

Two Bucknell Wrestlers Appear in InterMat Preseason Rankings (InterMat)

DATE: 11/23/2008 4:55:00 PM Bucknell wrestling juniors David Marble (Harpursville, N.Y./Harpursville Central) and Andy Rendos (Brockway, Pa./Brockway Area) earned their second preseason national rankings recently when they were listed among the best in the country in their weight classes in the USA Today/Intermat/NWCA preseason rankings.

Vikings wrap up district title (Albert Lea Tribune)

The Northwood-Kensett football team claimed its first district title since 2001 with a 36-20 win over Rudd-Rockford-Marble Rock Friday in Northwood.